Terms and Conditions of a ROW Use permit for a sidewalk cafe.

A ROW Use permit for use of a sidewalk for sidewalk cafe must comply with the following terms and conditions which will be attached to the ROW Use Permit:

- The applicant is the owner or occupant of the abutting property and operates a cafe, restaurant, or tavern thereon.
- The location of the sidewalk cafe shall not reduce or obstruct pedestrian passage on the sidewalk to less than four (4) feet to the nearest street trees, utility poles, traffic control signs and devices, parking meters, fire hydrants, buildings and other similar devices and structures. Furthermore, such placement shall be consistent with any applicable standards established by the Americans with Disabilities Act and shall not obstruct vehicular traffic or parking or the use of any crosswalk, wheelchair ramp, bus or taxi zone.
- The proposed sidewalk cafe area is included within a food-service establishment permit issued by the Seattle-King County health department or has otherwise been authorized by said department.
- Liquor. Liquor, as defined in RCW 66.04.010, as now existing or hereinafter amended, may be used and sold at a sidewalk cafe when authorized in both the use permit and provided for in this chapter and by permit of the Washington State Liquor Control Board, and not otherwise.
- Sidewalk condition. The applicant shall comply with the terms and conditions of the sidewalk cafe permit issued, shall maintain the sidewalk in a clean and safe condition for pedestrian travel, and shall immediately clear the sidewalk area when ordered to do so by the chief of police, fire marshal or their authorized representatives, or other appropriate city officer, such as a department director

Additional terms and conditions may include, but not be limited to:

- Restrictions as to the number and placement of tables and chairs and as to the hours and dates of use;
- A requirement that the applicant clear the sidewalk as may be necessary to accommodate deliveries to abutting or other nearby properties;
- Regulations upon lighting and illumination of the sidewalk cafe, limitations upon noise, and restrictions upon the placement of furniture or equipment used in connection with the sidewalk café
- The posting of a surety bond or establishment of an escrow account in accordance with the provisions of this chapter;
- If the sidewalk cafe causes a change in pedestrian travel patterns, appropriate modifications to the sidewalk in the immediate vicinity in order to accommodate the change or to assure compliance with the Federal Americans with Disabilities Act;
- Restoration of the sidewalk upon completion of the use.

Unless expressly authorized by the Director of Public Works in approving a ROW Use permit, no pavement shall be broken, no sidewalk surface disturbed, and no permanent fixture of any kind shall be installed in or on sidewalk area in connection with a sidewalk cafe.

The Right-of-Way Use Permit may be terminated by the City for any reason, and without cause, by giving the owner thirty days written notice.
